

French-American Chamber of Commerce, Philadelphia Chapter
Serving Pennsylvania, Delaware, & Southern New Jersey since 1989!

The French-American Chamber of Commerce (FACC), Philadelphia Chapter, serves Pennsylvania, Delaware and Southern New Jersey as a thriving, non-profit, member-supported business association with over 350 globally-minded American, international and French business leaders representing companies of all sizes in our region.

Thanks to significant French business investment in our region and the continuing global expansion of American companies, the Philadelphia Chapter has grown since 1989 to become one of the largest in the nationwide FACC network. Additionally, the FACC ranks as one of the largest and most active of 12 binational chambers of commerce serving the Greater Philadelphia area.

The FACC is a member of CCI France International, a French organization that unites the Chambers of Commerce and Industry within France with 124 French binational chambers and business associations abroad, operating in 93 countries around the world.

A Diverse Membership

There is an FACC membership level to suit companies of every size. We have a diverse membership with business leaders representing a wide array of industries such as: pharmaceutical, biotech, chemical, healthcare, green energy, financial services, law, logistics, insurance, hospitality, accounting, real estate, technology, manufacturing, safety, food and wine, beauty, transportation, economic development, and much more.

Our membership features many small and medium-sized businesses, including developers of medical devices, cybersecurity consultants, financial service providers, marketing and consulting firms, importers, exporters, and creative entrepreneurs.

6 Great Reasons to Join the FACC Philadelphia Today!

1. Meet Friendly, Globally-minded Business Leaders:

FACC-Philadelphia offers the best forum for connecting with like-minded French and American Francophile business leaders in a professional setting. Our programs and publications are in English to reach the broadest audience. By joining the FACC, one of the largest bi-national chambers of commerce in the region, your company will raise its profile and be recognized by an internationally astute group of business leaders supporting economic development in our region.

2. Increase Your Visibility in the International Community:

As a new Corporate Member, you may introduce your company to your fellow FACC Members and our contacts via a profile article in our monthly e-Newsletter, L'EDITION. You may also submit press releases to be featured as Member News as you achieve professional milestones and your company has interesting and important information to share.

3. Source Employees with Our Career Services:

Globally-minded businesses need globally-minded staff. Corporate Members may email job descriptions which we will post on our website and include in our L'EDITION e-Newsletter to spread the word among our members and contacts.

4. Attract New Business and Promote Economic Development :

Corporate Members can offer benefits or discounts on products and services to attract new business. Your offer will be posted on our website and emailed to the FACC Members and contacts.

5. Host International Talent and Expand Your Business Abroad:

Qualifying Corporate Member companies and organizations that would like to host French and European interns, trainees, and VIEs (Volunteers for International Experience) have exclusive access to the FACC NY's International Career Development Program (ICDP) and its supportive and custom-tailored J-1 visa sponsor service. The ICDP Team can also help American citizens, who have secured an internship in France, obtain the necessary French visa.

6. Showcase Your Business with an Event Sponsorship:

When your company sponsors an FACC event or program, you have an exciting opportunity to promote your business, entertain clients, and reward your team in a multicultural, fun, and professional setting. Sponsorships are available for our annual fundraisers: La Fête Gala & Global Leadership Award in the Spring and the Savor Soirée, generally held the third Thursday in November to coincide with the Beaujolais Nouveau Release Date. Additional sponsorship opportunities include Meet the CEO, panel discussions on hot topics, business receptions, seminars, workshops, and much more! Feel free to contact us with your program ideas.
