Globally-minded businesses need globally-minded staff. Corporate Members may email job descriptions which we will post on our website and include in our L'EDITION e-Newsletter to spread the word among our members and contacts.

4. Attract New Business and Promote Economic Development:

Corporate Members can offer benefits or discounts on products and services to attract new business. Your offer will be shared on our website and emailed to the FACC Members and contacts.

5. Host International Talent and Expand Your Business Abroad:

Qualifying Corporate Member companies, organizations, and hospitality venues that would like to host French and European interns, trainees, and VIEs (Volunteers for International Experience) have exclusive access to the FACC New York's International Career Development Program (ICDP) and its supportive and custom-tailored J-1 visa sponsor service. The ICDP Team can also help American citizens, who have secured an internship in France, obtain the necessary French visa.
